PMA Companies Releases PMA Cinch® Executive Dashboard

PMA Companies is pleased to announce significant enhancements to PMA Cinch®, our Risk Management Information System. The new PMA Cinch Executive Dashboard presents critical claims information at-a-glance, and delivers an interactive tool enabling clients to easily organize and view their claims information on an aggregate and individual basis.

The PMA Cinch Executive Dashboard is designed to help our clients track their loss history performance, monitor their progress and identify and prevent problems in their risk management programs.

“PMA Companies’ focus is on providing outstanding service and tangible business value to our clients,” says Jim Klotz, PMA Senior Vice President and Chief Information Officer, PMA Companies. “In today’s business world, the value of delivering meaningful and actionable data that can be customized for each business’s individual needs cannot be understated. PMA Cinch Executive Dashboard is a powerful information tool, designed to help our clients fulfill their data analytics needs, take a more strategic approach to risk management and reduce their total cost of risk.”

PMA Cinch Executive Dashboard features include:

- ◆ Executive Summary Tool—An interactive tool making it easy for clients to organize and view both aggregate and individual claims information.
- ◆ Full Color Charts and Visuals—Data appears in easy-to-view graphs, charts and tables, enabling our clients to grasp information quickly and easily.
- ◆ More Flexibility and Data Analytics—Claims information can be customized according to individual user needs, for example, location, claims type, claims status, and accident date range.
- ◆ Comprehensive Data—Display elements are based upon extensive, detailed data in clients’ loss reports.
- ◆ Ease of Use—The dashboard is highly intuitive and requires no training.

The PMA Cinch Executive Dashboard is available for PMA Cinch users who are PMA Insurance Group, PMA Management Corp. and PMA Management Corp. of New England clients.
